GOVERNMENT OF THE PEOPLE'S REPUBLIC OF BANGLADESH

CABINET SECRETARIAT

ESTABLISHMENT DIVISION

Training and Career Planning Wing

Career Development Section

NOTIFICATION

Dacca, the 18th January 1982

No. S.R.O. 36-L/82.—In exercise of the powers conferred by the proviso to Article 133 of the Constitution of the People's Republic of Bangladesh, the President, after consultation with the Bangladesh Public Service Commission, as required by clause (2) of Article 140 of that Constitution, is pleased to make the following rules, namely:—

1. Short title.—These rules may be called the Research Officer (Training and Career Planning Wing of the Establishment Division) Recruitment Rules, 1981.

2. Definitions.—In these rules, unless there is anything repugnant in the subject or context,—

- (a) "appointing authority" means the Government and includes any officer authorised by the Government to make appointment to the post;
- (b) "Commission" means the Bangladesh Public Service Commission;
- (c) "Post" means the post specified in the Schedule;

- (d) "Probationer" means a person appointed on probation to the post;
- (e) "recognised university" means a university established by or under any law for the time being in force and includes any other university declared by the Government, after consultation with the Commission, to be a recognised university for the purpose of these rules;
- (f) "requisite qualification", in relation to the post, means the qualification laid down in the Schedule in relation to that post; and
- (g) "Schedule" means the Schedule annexed to these rules.

3. Procedure for recruitment.—(1) Subject to the provisions of the Schedule, appointment to the post shall be made by direct recruitment.

(2) No person shall be appointed to the post unless he has the requisite qualification and is also within the age limit laid down in the Schedule for that post.

4. Appointment.—(1) No appointment to the post shall be made except upon the recommendation of the Commission.

(2) No person shall be eligible for appointment to the post, if he—

- (a) is not a citizen of Bangladesh, or a permanent resident of Bangladesh;
- (b) is married to, or has entered into a promise of marriage with, a person who is not a citizen of Bangladesh.

(3) No appointment to the post shall be made until—

- (a) the person selected for appointment is certified by a Medical Board set up for the purpose by the Director-General of Health Services to be medically fit for such appointment and that he does not suffer from any such organic defect as is likely to interfere with the discharge of the duties of the post; and
- (b) the antecedents of the person so selected have been verified through appropriate agencies and found to be such as do not render him unfit for appointment in the service of the Republic.

(4) No person shall be recommended for appointment to the post, unless—

- (a) he applied in such form, accompanied by such fee and before such date, as was notified by the Commission while inviting applications for the post; and
- (b) In the case of a person already in the service of the Republic or in the service of a local authority, he applied through his official superior.

5. Probation.—(1) Persons selected for appointment to the post against a substantive vacancy shall be appointed on probation for a period of two years from the date of substantive appointment;

Provided that the appointing authority may, for reasons to be recorded in writing, extend the period of probation by a period or periods so that the extended period does not exceed two years in aggregate.

(2) Where, during the period of probation of a probationer, the appointing authority is of opinion that the conduct and work of the probationer is unsatisfactory or that he is not likely to become efficient, it may, before the expiry of that period, terminate his service.

(3) After the completion of the period of probation including the extended period, if any, the appointing authority,—

(a) if it is satisfied that the conduct and work of the probationer during his period of probation has been satisfactory, shall, subject to the provisions of sub-rule(4), confirm him; and

(b) if it is of opinion that the conduct and work of the probationer during that period was not satisfactory, may terminate his service.

(4) A probationer shall not be confirmed in the post until he has passed such examination and undergone such training as the Government may, from time to time, prescribe by order.
