2. After the notification under sub-section (2) of section 9 has been issued, persons, included in the forces engaged in field firing or artillery practice may within the notified area during the specified period, carry out field firing and artillery practice with lethal missiles.

3. The Officer Commanding the forces engaged in any such practice may, within the said area or specified part thereof, declare any area to be a danger zone and thereupon, the Collector, shall, on application made to him by such officer, prohibit the entry into and secure the removal from such danger zone of all persons and domestic animals during the times when the discharge of lethal missiles is taking place or there is danger to life or health. To enable land being used for field firing and artillery practice in such manner as to secure the public against danger and to enable such practice being carried out without interference and with the minimum inconvenience to inhabitants of the area affected, the Collector shall take such action as is prescribed by rules made under section 13 of the said Act.

4. Compensation shall be payable for any damage to person or property or interference with rights or privileges arising from such field firing and artillery practice including expenses reasonably incurred in protecting person, property, rights and privileges. Such compensation shall include compensation for exclusion or removal from any place declared to be a danger zone of persons or domestic animals and also compensation for any loss of employment or deterioration of crops resulting from any such exclusion or removal.

5. Every such compensation will be determined by a Revenue Officer who will be deputed by the Collector to accompany the forces engaged in any such practice.

6. The compensation for exclusion or removal from any area declared to be a danger zone will be disbursed by such Revenue Officer, at not less than the minimum rates prescribed by rules made under section 13 of the said Act, before exclusion or removal is enforced.

7. All claims for compensation other than that referred to in paragraph 6 shall be made to the Revenue Officer after the field firing and artillery practice is over at a place in the locality to be selected by him.

8. The Revenue Officer shall consider all claims for compensation and determine, on local investigation and where possible after hearing the claimant the amount of compensation, if any, which shall be awarded in each case and shall disburse on the spot to the claimant the compensation so determined as payable.

9. Any claimant dissatisfied with or refusal of the Revenue Officer to award him compensation or with the amount of compensation awarded to him by the Revenue Officer may, at any time, within fifteen days from the communication to him of the decision of the Revenue Officer, give notice to the Revenue Officer of his intention to appeal against the decision. Where any such notice has been given the Collector shall constitute a Commission consisting of himself or Chairman or person nominated by the Officer Commanding the forces engaged in such practice and two persons nominated by the District Board, and the Commission shall decide all appeals of which notice has been given. The decision of the Commission shall be final and no suit shall lie in any Civil Court in respect of any matter decided by the Commission.

10. No fee shall be charged in connection with any claim, notice, appeal, application or document filed before the Revenue Officer, Collector or the Commission.

11. The method of making claims for compensation and preferring appeals from original awards of compensation, the procedure of the Revenue Officer and the Commission for the expeditious settlement of claims and of appeals and the payment of compensation so far as possible direct to the claimant and the principal to be followed by them in assessing the amount of compensation to be awarded shall be such as are prescribed by rules made under section 13 of the said Act.

12. If during the period specified in the notification to be issued under sub-section (2) of section 9 of the said Act any person within the notified area—

- (a) wilfully obstructs or interferes with the carrying out of field firing or artillery practice, or
- (b) without due authority enters or remains in any camp, or
- (c) without due authority enters or remains in any area declared to be a danger zone at a time when entry thereto is prohibited, or
- (d) without due authority interferes with any flag or mark or target or any apparatus used for the purposes of the practice, he shall be punishable with fine which may extend to ten Taka.

NATIONAL BOARD OF REVENUE

NOTIFICATION

Dacca, the 24th July, 1979.

No. S.R.O. 217-L/79/15-Excise.—In exercise of the powers conferred by section 37 of the Excises and Salt Act, 1944 (I of 1944), the National Board of Revenue is pleased to make the following further amendments in the Excises and Salt Rules, 1944, namely:

In the aforesaid Rules,—

(1) for rule 96-TT, the following shall be substituted, namely:—

“96-TT. Special procedure in respect of gold and silver and products thereof.

(1) In this rule, unless there is anything repugnant in the subject or context,—

- (a) “management” means the owner, manager or any person, by whatever designation known, responsible for the management or conduct of the business of any company, firm, shop or establishment manufacturing or dealing in gold or silver, or both, including remelted gold or silver and products made wholly or partly of gold or silver, all sorts, including ornaments or jewellery;
- (b) “repair” means correcting or mending of minor identifiable breakage without involving any remaking, reprocessing, remodelling or altering the shape, model or quality of the original product of gold or silver;
- (c) “customer” means a person who purchases gold or silver or products thereof, including ornaments or jewellery, either in readymade condition or gets the same processed, made, remade, remodelled or repaired direct from a manufacturer or a dealer for ultimate use or holding but not for further sale; and
- (d) “assessing officer”, in relation to the assessment and collection of the duty leviable on gold or silver and products thereof, means the proper officer not below the rank of Deputy Superintendent.

(2) Notwithstanding anything contained elsewhere in these rules, the duty on gold and silver and products thereof shall be paid by such management as sells the same, including ornaments or jewellery, in readymade condition, to a customer; or takes and complies with orders from a customer for processing, making, remaking, remodelling or repairing the same and the duty applicable thereto shall be paid by the management in the manner laid down in this rule.

(3) Every management which is liable to pay duty under sub-rule (2) shall, on execution of a bond in Form B-2 under rule 48 and with a security deposit of Taka one thousand, obtained a licence from the proper officer on payment of an annual licence fee of Taka one hundred.

- (4) The management shall maintain in the proper form a daily register of all the gold or silver and products thereof received, purchased, delivered or sold during the day.
- (5) The management shall maintain the following bound books containing duplicate memos in proper form which should be serially numbered and issue the original to the customer for every transaction and retaining the carbon copy in the book:—
 - (a) the Order Book;
 - (b) the Cash Memo Book; and
 - (c) the Repair Book.

The aforesaid books as well as the register required to be maintained under sub-rule (4) shall be maintained by the management separately for gold and its products and silver and its products, respectively.

- (6) The management shall document all transactions in the proper books specified in sub-rule (5) in the proper form for the following purposes, namely:—
 - (a) the Order Book for receipt of orders showing details of the transaction for products of gold or silver as the case may be;
 - (b) the Cash Memo Book for showing the details of the transaction at the time of actual delivery of the gold or silver or products thereof whether on order or on readymade sale; and
 - (c) the Repair Book for showing details of the repair and other relevant facts and figures.
- (7) The management shall get every page of the register and the books specified in sub-rules (4) and (5) authenticated by the proper officer before bringing them into use.
- (8) The management shall, within seven days after the close of each month, submit to the proper officer a monthly return in the proper form.
- (9) The management shall pay the duty due within seven days after the close of each month and shall send the Treasury Challan as a proof of payment of the duty along with the monthly return to be submitted to the proper officer under sub-rule (8) so as to reach him on or before the tenth day of the following month.
- (10) If the assessing officer is satisfied that the return is correct and complete, he shall make an assessment of the duty payable on the basis of the return, after giving due credit for the duty paid in pursuance of sub-rule (9). If the assessing officer is not so satisfied, he may, after obtaining such further particulars as he may require, making such enquiries and giving the management an opportunity of being heard, determine the duty payable; if, on the other hand, a management does not submit the monthly return within the period specified in sub-rule (8), the assessing officer may make an assessment to the best of his judgement after giving the management an opportunity of being heard.

- (11) Every management shall always keep the documents complete and make them readily available for inspection and checking by an excise officer not below the rank of an Inspector.
- (12) If any management contravenes any of the provisions of this rule, he shall, without prejudice to such other action as may be taken under the Act or these rules, be liable to a penalty which may extend to Taka two thousand or ten times the amount of duty involved, whichever is higher.
- (13) The provisions of rules 3A; 9, 52, 52A, 52B, sub-rule (1) of rule 224, 228, 228A and 229 shall not apply to gold and silver and products thereof or the management.”;

NOTIFICATION

Dacca, the 24th July, 1979.

No. S.R.O. 218-L/79/14-Excise.—In exercise of the powers conferred by sub-section (1) of section 12A of the Excises and Salt Act, 1944 (I of 1944), the Government is pleased to make the following further amendments in this Ministry's Notification No. S.R.O. 7(D)/Exc/72, dated the 30th June, 1972, namely:—

In the aforesaid Notification, in the TABLE,—

(1) for Sl. No. 40 in the first column and the entries relating thereto in the second, third and fourth columns the following shall be substituted, namely:—

"40. Gold and silver and products thereof—

- | | |
| (a) Gold and silver and products thereof purchased by a manufacturer or a dealer for the purpose of further manufacture including remaking, remodelling or reprocessing, provided they are actually so manufactured subsequently and proper accounts thereof are maintained and the duty due thereon at the time of selling the articles so manufactured is paid in the manner laid down in the rules made in this behalf. | 48(1) and (2)—Nil. |
| (b) Gold products received by a manufacturer or a dealer for the purpose of remaking, remodelling or reprocessing and the products so remade, remodelled or reprocessed, does not contain more than 20% addition to the net weight of the original products. | 48(1) Ten per cent. of the value of the finished gold products. |
| (c) Silver products received by a manufacturer or a dealer for the purpose of remaking, remodelling or reprocessing and the products so remade, remodelled or reprocessed, does not contain more than 20% addition to the net weight of the original products. | 48(2) Five per cent. of the value of the finished silver products. |
| (d) Gold products received by a manufacturer or a dealer for the purpose of genuine minor repair of an identifiable breakage which involves no other readjustments, remodelling or reprocessing. | 48(1) Taka ten or ten per cent. of the value of the gold products, whichever is less. |

- (e) Silver products received by a manufacturer or a dealer for the purpose of genuine minor repair of an identifiable breakage which involves no other readjustments, remodelling or reprocessing. 48(2) Taka five or five per cent. of the value of the silver products, whichever is less.
- (f) All other gold or products thereof .. 48(1) Fifteen per cent. of the value of the gold or products thereof.
- (g) All other silver or products thereof .. 48(2) Seven and a half per cent. of the value of the silver or products thereof.

Explanation:

(1) "Gold or silver and products thereof" shall mean and include any other ingredients, such as alloy and stones, but not bronze in the case of gold plated bronze bangles only. However, for the purpose of application of the above duty rates, the weight of such ingredients shall be added to the gold or silver elements of the product as if they were gold or silver, as the case may be, and the duty on the total weight shall be assessed accordingly.

(2) "Value" of the finished products of gold or silver, as the case may be, shall be the aggregate of the total value of the gold or silver, the making charges and any other charges realised or normally realised by the management."

By order of the President

K. M. M. HOSSAIN

Secretary.
