8. Probation and confirmation.—(1) A person initially appointed to the Service against a substantive vacancy shall remain on probation for—

- (a) a period of two years if he is appointed by direct recruitment to the Service on the recommendation of the Commission;
- (b) a period of one year if he is appointed on promotion.

The period of probation may be extended by the Government for a further period not exceeding two years.

Explanation.—If no order is made by the day following the completion of the probation period, the period of probation shall be deemed to have been extended.

(2) A person appointed to the service on probation shall, during the period of probation, undergo such training under such terms and conditions as may be determined by the Government in this behalf.

(3) During the period of probation, appointment of a probationer may be terminated without consultation with the Commission if he is found unsuitable for retention in the Service.

(4) No person shall be confirmed in the Service unless he has served the prescribed period of probation, has successfully completed such training and passed such departmental examination as may be prescribed by the Government and unless his conduct and work have been found satisfactory.

9. Seniority.—The seniority of the members of the Service at the stage of entry shall be determined in the order of merit as declared by the Commission at the time of making recommendation for appointment.

10. General rules.—In matters not expressly provided for in these rules members of the Service shall be governed by such rules as have been or may hereafter be framed by the Government and made applicable to them.

By order of the President
FAYEZUDDIN AHMED
Secretary.
