NOTIFICATION

Dacca, the 20th December, 1979

No. S.R.O. 351-L/79.—In exercise of the powers conferred by the proviso to article 133 of the Constitution of the People's Republic of Bangladesh and in supersession of all other rules made in this behalf, the President, after consultation with the Bangladesh Public Service Commission as required by clause (2) of article 140 of that Constitution, is pleased to make the following Rules, namely:—

THE GAZETTED OFFICERS (DIRECTORATE OF STAFF WELFARE) RECRUITMENT RULES, 1979.

1. Short title.—These rules may be called the Gazetted Officers (Directorate of Staff Welfare) Recruitment Rules, 1979.

2. Definitions.—In these rules, unless there is anything repugnant in the subject or context,—

- (a) "appointing authority" means the Government and includes, in relation to any specified post, any officer authorised by the Government to make appointment to such post;
- (b) "Commission" means the Bangladesh Public Service Commission;
- (c) "Directorate" means the Directorate of Staff Welfare under the Establishment Division;
- (d) "Probationer" means a person appointed on probation to a specified post against a substantive vacancy;
- (e) "recognised University" means a University established by or under any law for the time being in force and includes any other University declared by the Government, after consultation with the Commission, to be a recognised University for the purpose of these rules;

- (f) "requisite qualification" in relation to a specified post means the qualification indicated in the Schedule ;
- (g) "Schedule" means the Schedule annexed to these rules ; and
- (h) "specified post" means a post specified in the Schedule.

3. Method of recruitment.—(1) Subject to the provisions of the Schedule and instructions relating to reservation for the purposes of clause (3) of article 29 of the Constitution of the People's Republic of Bangladesh, appointment to a specified post shall be made by the appointing authority :—

- (a) by direct recruitment ; or
- (b) by promotion ; or
- (c) by transfer on deputation.

(2) No person shall be appointed to a specified post unless he has the requisite qualification, and in the case of direct recruitment, he is also within the age limit specified in the Schedule for the post.

4. Appointment by direct recruitment.—(1) No appointment to a specified post shall be made except upon the recommendation of the Commission.

(2) No person shall be eligible for appointment to a specified post by direct recruitment, if—

- (a) he is not a citizen of, or a permanent resident of Bangladesh.
- (b) is married to, or has entered into a promise of marriage with a person who is not a citizen of Bangladesh.

(3) No appointment to a specified post by direct recruitment shall be made until—

- (a) the person selected for appointment is certified to be medically fit by an authorised Medical Officer appointed, or a Medical Board set up, for the purpose by the Directorate of Health Services ; and
- (b) the antecedents of the person so selected have been verified through appropriate agencies and found to be such as do not render him unfit for appointment to the service of the Republic.

(4) No person shall be recommended for appointment to a specified post unless he applies in such form, accompanied by such fee and before such date as is notified by the Commission while inviting application for the post.

5. Appointment by promotion.—Appointment by promotion to a specified post shall be made by the appointing authority on the recommendation of the Departmental Selection Committee constituted by the Government in this behalf:

Provided that appointment by promotion to a specified post of higher class shall be made on the recommendation of the Commission.

6. Probation.—(1) Persons selected for appointment to a specified post otherwise than by transfer on deputation against a substantive vacancy shall be appointed on probation,—

- (a) in the case of direct recruitment, for a period of two years from the date of substantive appointment; and
- (b) in the case of promotion, for a period of one year from the date of such appointment:

Provided that the appointing authority may, for reasons to be recorded in writing, extend the period of probation by a period or periods so that the extended period, does not exceed two years in aggregate.

(2) After completion of the period of probation including the extended period, if any, the appointing authority,—

- (a) if it is satisfied that the conduct and work of the probationer during his period of probation have been satisfactory, shall, subject to the provision of sub-rule (3) confirm him; and
- (b) if it is of the opinion that the conduct and work of the probationer during that period were not satisfactory, shall, in the case of direct recruitment, terminate his service and in the case of promotion, revert him to the post from which he was promoted.

Explanation—The period of probation of a probationer shall be deemed to have been extended if no order has been made under this rule.

(3) A probationer shall not be confirmed in a specified post until he has passed such examination and training as the Government may, from time to time, direct.
